

Breaking Down Online Evangelism

Part Four

Four Action Steps to Get Involved in Online
Evangelism

This is the final post in a four-part series where we aimed to break down online evangelism.

If you missed the first three blogs, read them here.

Now that you've gone through what online evangelism is, its importance, and the role each individual can play, learn what you can do today to get involved.

You're on your way to becoming a digital missionary!

1. Pray for the Holy Spirit

- In Acts 1:8, Jesus Christ promised to give us power through His Holy Spirit so that we could be His witnesses to the ends of the earth, this includes the online world. —————
 - Arm yourselves with humility; pray that angels of God may come close to your side to impress the mind; for it is not you that work the Holy Spirit, but the Holy Spirit must work you. It is the Holy Spirit that makes the truth impressive. Keep practical truth ever before the people.—
Testimonies, vol. 6, p. 57. (1900)

2. Start a Digital Evangelism Project

- Be intentional about using your time, energy, and gadgets for soul-winning. Consider the gifts, talents, and resources God gave you and then choose a project. Learn how to start one here.

Digital Missionary Project Ideas

Blogging

Choose a topic from a fresh angle and start writing.

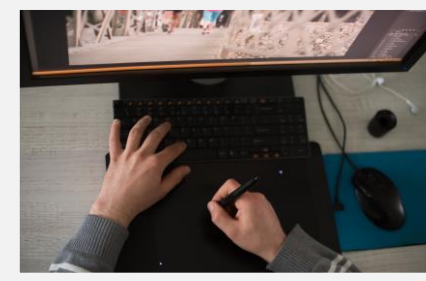

YouTube

YouTube is the largest search engine after Google.

3. Support a Digital Missionary

Missionaries need supporters. You can help a digital missionary in their ministry.

Donate

You can support a digital missionary financially through their Patreon accounts or ask them how you can help their ministry.

Encourage

Encourage digital missionaries with your prayers and words of encouragements. Those go a long way in helping to fight daily trials.

Engage

Engaging and sharing a missionary's content helps increase awareness and draws other supporters. Take your like a step further and share.

4. Educate Yourself

You can teach yourself skills to help you serve God more effectively.

Too Techy?

- Many people exclude themselves from the work of digital evangelism because they feel it's "too techy" or they don't know "computer stuff."

Self-Taught

- Surprisingly, digital missionaries who have the most impact have little to no background experience. Many did not receive formal training in the area of communication or media.

God Qualifies Those He Calls

- These individuals were willing to be a part of the Great Commission and then took tangible steps to learn basic skills.
- Many taught themselves to edit audio and video, use a camera, design graphics, take photographs, and speak in front of a camera.

Our Mission

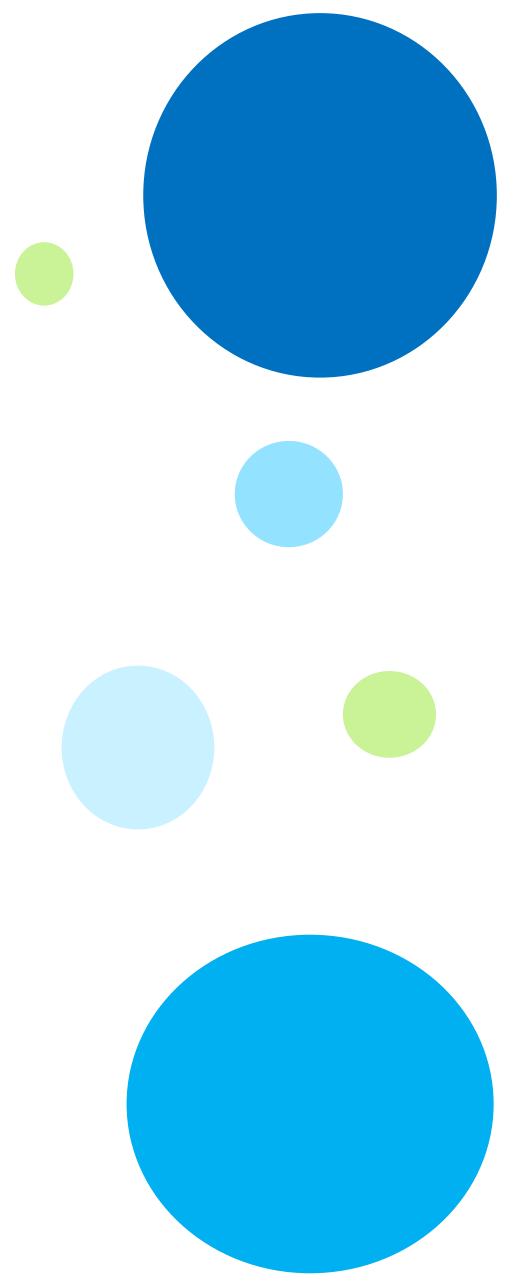

“And this gospel of the kingdom
will be preached in the whole world as a testimony to all nations, and then the end will come”

(Matthew 24:14)

“Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit

(Matthew 28:19).

- Don't choose a feather over a sledgehammer to break a rock.
- In other words, use the most effective tools to get the work done.
- Our devices are sledgehammers to break down barriers and show the world Jesus.

Let every worker

in the Master's vineyard,

study, plan, devise methods,

to reach the people where they are.

We must do something out of the common course of things.

We must arrest the attention.

-- Letter 20, 1893.
